

It has come to my attention that efforts are being made to chip away at Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. This is not in the best interest of the citizen, but can only benefit corporations. I have been so pleased with the effectiveness of the law, and I do not wish for it to be weakened. Please deny any petition which seeks to do so.